Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill is not expected to impact expenditures for the State Department of Education (SDE) as the review of standards occurs in the normal course of agency business.

The local expenditure impact on school districts is undetermined. Local school districts may incur expenses related to updating training or materials; however, without knowing the extent of any possible changes to the standards the potential impact cannot be determined.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Signed by Governor on September 29, 2020

State Expenditure

This bill requires SDE to continue to revise existing age-appropriate standards and concepts that address mental, emotional, and social health at the next cyclical review of health standards.

As reviews of standards are conducted in the normal course of agency business, no expenditure impact is expected to result from this requirement.
